Item 4: ADVISORY BUSINESS

A.

Double Diamond was founded in 2010. Double Diamond is primarily owned and managed by its principal, Andrew Bodner. Mr. Bodner has more than 30 years of experience in wealth management.

B.

Investment Management Services:

Double Diamond provides investment management services primarily on a discretionary basis according to the client's investment objectives and the terms and conditions of the Advisory Agreement with the client. Double Diamond's investment management primarily utilizes proprietary Portfolio Models in order to achieve investment results consistent with clients' investment objectives.

Double Diamond's Managed Account Program

In this program, Double Diamond's principal Andrew Bodner, will design an investment program based on the needs of the client to achieve a specific investment goal. This portfolio is also designed to provide an additional layer of diversification for clients that may be invested in other investment strategies. Double Diamond invests according to several models, both taxable and tax-deferred, that allow us to align risk and investment return with a client's stated objective. Through ongoing client conversation, Double Diamond looks to ascertain information that may help us determine whether the client's risk tolerance has, or should be, changed. Within each model, one may find various investments including individual stocks and bonds, mutual funds, ETFs, alternative investments, and more.

Double Diamond also provides boutique advisory services to contracting companies that generally work on publicly financed projects (e.g bridges, roads). Double Diamond provides investment management of retainage dollars so that the contracting companies can receive investment income and/or appreciation during the retainage period.

Double Diamond also sponsors and is a portfolio manager within its' own WRAP program. For more information please refer to Double Diamond's WRAP Brochure (ADV 2A Appendix 1).

C.

Double Diamond investment programs are tailored to the individual needs and objectives of each client. Double Diamond will seek information from clients to assess the proper investment or investment manager allocation in order to achieve their investment goals. Clients may seek security restrictions or limits subject to the acceptance by Double Diamond.

E.

Double Diamond's current assets under management are approximately $56 million dollars. Currently all advisory assets are managed on a discretionary basis.

Item 5: FEES AND COMPENSATION

A.

Double Diamond's investment management fee schedule ("Advisory Fees") for all accounts managed by Double Diamond is based on a percentage of assets (generally net of any debit balances) and is set forth below. The Advisory Fees represent the highest fee that may be charged absent special circumstances:

Account Assets	Annual Fee
All assets	1.75%

Double Diamond's actual fees may be negotiated, and a client may pay more or less than similar clients depending on the particular circumstances of the client, which may include considerations related to size of the client's account, additional and/or differing levels of service or as negotiated. Clients that negotiate fees may end up paying a higher fee than that set forth in the fee schedules above as a result of fluctuations in the client's assets under management and/or account performance.

B.

All Double Diamond clients enter into an Investment Advisory Agreement setting forth the terms and conditions under which Double Diamond shall manage the client's assets and a separate custodial/clearing agreement for each designated broker-dealer/custodian. Both the Double Diamond's Agreement and the custodial/clearing agreement authorize the custodian to debit the client's account in the amount of Double Diamond's advisory fee and remit same.

Double Diamond possesses written authorization from its clients to deduct its advisory fees from an account held by a qualified custodian. Double Diamond sends the qualified custodian written notice of the amount of the advisory fee to be deducted. Double Diamond sends the client a written invoice itemizing the fee, including any formulae used to calculate the fee, the time period covered by the fee and the amount of assets under management on which the fee was based.

C.

Double Diamond will generally recommend a broker-dealer/custodian for client's investment management assets. In addition to the investment management fee, the client may incur brokerage commissions and/or transaction fees for effecting certain securities transactions (i.e. transaction fees are charged for certain no-load mutual funds, commissions are charged for individual securities transactions). In addition, the client will also incur, relative to all mutual fund and exchange traded fund purchases, charges imposed at the fund level (e.g. management fees and other fund expenses). Please refer to Item 12 which discusses Double Diamond's brokerage practices.

D.

Double Diamond's Advisory Fees shall also be prorated and paid monthly or quarterly, in advance, based upon the market value of the assets on the last business day of the previous quarter. The Agreement between Double Diamond and the client will continue in effect until terminated by either party. In the event the client terminates Double Diamond's services, the balance of any unearned fee, if any, shall be refunded to the client

E.

Double Diamond's Advisory Affiliates, in their individual capacities are registered representatives of AWP Capital Inc. ("AWP Capital"), an SEC registered broker-dealer and member of FINRA. Brokerage commissions may be charged by AWP Capital to effect securities transactions and thereafter, a portion of these commissions may be paid by AWP Capital to Double Diamond's Advisory Affiliates. Prior to effecting any transactions, the client will be required to enter directly into an account agreement with AWP Capital. The brokerage commissions charged by AWP Capital may be higher or lower than those charged by other broker-dealers and the client has the option to purchase these products at another broker-dealer. In addition, certain of the Double Diamond's Advisory Affiliates may also receive additional ongoing 12b-1 fees from the mutual fund company.

A conflict of interest exists to the extent that the Double Diamond recommends the purchase of securities wherein its Advisory Affiliates receive commissions or other additional compensation as a result of clients purchasing securities based upon such recommendations. For ERISA Accounts, Double Diamond will offset its advisory fees by an amount equal to the aggregate commissions and 12b-1 fees earned by the Registrant's Advisory Affiliates in their individual capacities as registered representatives of AWP Capital.

Item 6: PERFORMANCE-BASED FEES and SIDE-BY-SIDE MANAGEMENT

Double Diamond does not charge performance-based fees.

Item 7: TYPES OF CLIENTS

Double Diamond provides investment advisory services to the following clients:

- Individuals and High Net Worth Individuals;
- Trusts, Estates, Charitable Organizations;
- Corporations, Pension Plans & 401(k)\

Minimum Account Size

As a condition for starting and maintaining a relationship, Double Diamond generally imposes a minimum portfolio size of $500,000 for its Investment Management Services. Double Diamond, in its sole discretion, may accept clients with smaller portfolios based upon certain criteria including anticipated future earning capacity, anticipated future additional assets, dollar amount of assets to be managed, related accounts, account composition, pre-existing client, account retention. Double Diamond only accepts clients with less than the minimum portfolio size if, in its sole opinion, the smaller portfolio size will not cause a substantial increase in investment risk beyond the client's identified risk tolerance.

Item 8: METHODS OF ANALYSIS, INVESTMENT STRATEGIES AND RISK OF LOSS

A.

Double Diamond seeks to provide income and/or appreciation by applying tactics that provide a substantial portion of the market's upside while simultaneously reducing a portfolio's downside. This may include reducing a position's size as that asset class substantially appreciates or may include increasing a position should the opposite occur. In addition, proper diversification should also alleviate much of the volatility. It also includes constant monitoring of market trends that may affect a portfolio. Investing in securities or any investment strategy involved risk of loss that clients should be prepared to bear.

B.

Double Diamond does not guarantee the future performance of any account or any specific level of performance, the success of any investment decision or strategy that Double Diamond may use, or the success of Double Diamond's overall investment management. All investment decisions are subject to various market, currency, economic, political, and business risk, and those investment decisions will not always be profitable. Moreover, each client is advised that it remains his/her/its responsibility to promptly notify Double Diamond if there is ever any change in his/her/its financial situation or investment objectives for the purpose of reviewing/evaluating/revising Double Diamond's previous recommendations and/or services.

A conflict of interest exists to the extent that Double Diamond's Advisory Affiliates recommend the purchase of insurance products and receive insurance commissions or additional compensation as a result. Such conflict is disclosed at time of sale and in this Brochure to the client.

Registered Representative of Broker-Dealer:

Double Diamond's Advisory Affiliates, in their individual capacities are registered representatives of APW Capital. Brokerage commissions may be charged by APW Capital to effect securities transactions and thereafter, a portion of these commissions may be paid by APW Capital to Double Diamond's Advisory Affiliates. Prior to effecting any transactions, the client will be required to enter directly into an account agreement with APW Capital. The brokerage commissions charged by APW Capital may be higher or lower than those charged by other broker-dealers. In addition, certain of the Double Diamond's Advisory Affiliates may also receive additional ongoing 12b-1 fees from the mutual fund company.

A conflict of interest exists to the extent that the Double Diamond recommends the purchase of securities wherein its Advisory Affiliates receive commissions or other additional compensation as a result of clients purchasing securities based upon such recommendations. Item 11: CODE OF ETHICS, PARTICIPATION IN CLIENT TRANSACTIONS AND PERSONAL TRADING

A.

Double Diamond has implemented a Code of Ethics which serves to establish a standard of business conduct for all of Double Diamond's Associated Persons that is based upon fundamental principles of openness, integrity, honesty and trust, a copy of which is available upon request.

In accordance with Section 204A of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, Double Diamond also maintains and enforces written policies reasonably designed to prevent the misuse of material non-public information by Double Diamond or any person associated with Double Diamond.

Double Diamond has adopted procedures to implement the firm's policy on personal securities transactions and reviews to monitor and ensure the firm's policy is observed, implemented properly and amended or updated, as appropriate

B/C/D.

Double Diamond and related persons may own an interest in, or buy and sell for their own account, the same securities that may also be held, purchased or sold in client accounts. In all cases, clients' orders are given priority. In no case shall the adviser or associate receive a better price or more favorable circumstance than a client. All associate trades of this type are made for long-term investment objectives and are not intended to benefit from short-term market effects. In some cases, the adviser may buy or sell a specific security for their own account, which the adviser does not consider appropriate for client accounts.

Item 12: BROKERAGE PRACTICES

A.

Double Diamond reviews a multitude of factors to determine which broker-dealer custodian to utilize. Such factors include, but are not limited to, execution quality, price research, operational support and other miscellaneous factors. Double Diamond reviews its custodial relationships on an annual basis to ensure that its clients are receiving best execution.

1. Research and Other Soft Dollar Benefits:

Although not a material consideration when determining whether to recommend that a client utilize the services of a particular broker-dealer/custodian, Double Diamond may receive from a broker-dealer/custodian (or a mutual fund company), without cost (and/or at a discount) support services and/or products, certain of which assist Double Diamond to better monitor and service client accounts maintained at such institutions. Included within the support services that may be obtained by the Double Diamond may be investment-related research, pricing information and market data, software and other technology that provide access to client account data, compliance and/or practice management-related publications, discounted or gratis consulting services, discounted and/or gratis attendance at conferences, meetings, and other educational and/or social events, marketing support, computer hardware and/or software and/or other products used by Double Diamond in furtherance of its investment advisory business operations.

Although the existence of the following support services may constitute a conflict of interest, Double Diamond's clients do not pay more for investment transactions effected and/or assets maintained at a particular broker-dealer/custodian as a result of this arrangement. There is no corresponding commitment made by Double Diamond to any particular broker-dealer/custodian or to any other entity to invest any specific amount or percentage of client assets in any specific mutual funds, securities or other investment products as a result of the above arrangement.

2. Brokerage for Client Referrals:

Double Diamond does not receive client referrals from any broker-dealer custodian.

3. Directed Brokerage:

Double Diamond does not routinely request, recommend or require that a client direct it to execute transactions through a specified broker-dealer. The client may direct Double Diamond to use a particular broker-dealer (subject to Double Diamond's right to decline and/or terminate the engagement) to execute some or all transactions for the client's account. In such event, the client will negotiate terms and arrangements for the account with that broker-dealer, and Double Diamond will be unable to seek better execution services or prices from other broker-dealers or be able to "bunch" the client's transactions with orders for other client's accounts managed by Double Diamond. As a result, client may pay higher commissions or other transaction costs or greater spreads, or receive less favorable net prices, on transactions for the account than would otherwise be the case.

B.

Double Diamond seeks to execute orders for its clients fairly and equitably. Double Diamond follows written procedures pursuant to which it may, and to the extent consistent with Best Execution, combine purchase or sale orders for the same security for multiple clients (sometimes called "bunching") so that they can be executed at the same time. The procedures for bunching trades may differ depending on the particular strategy or type of investment. Double Diamond is not required to bunch or aggregate orders if it determines that bunching or aggregating is not practical.

When client orders are bunched by Double Diamond, the order will be placed with the broker-dealer custodian for execution. When a bunched order is completely filled, Double Diamond generally will allocate the securities purchased or proceeds of sale among participating accounts based on the purchase or sale order. Adjustments or changes may be made by Double Diamond under certain circumstances, such as to avoid odd lots or excessively small allocations. If the bunched order is filled at different prices, through multiple trades, generally all such participating accounts will receive the average price. When a bunched order is partially filled, Double Diamond's procedures provide that the securities are to be allocated in a manner deemed fair and equitable to clients. Securities must be allocated proportionately based upon the relative size of the particular client's pre-trade designation.

Item 13: REVIEW OF ACCOUNTS

A/B.

Account reviews are conducted on an ongoing basis by Double Diamond's principal, Andrew Bodner. All investment management clients are required to discuss with him their investment objectives, needs and goals and to keep him informed of any changes. All clients are encouraged to meet at least annually with the adviser to comprehensively review financial planning issues, including investment objectives and performance.

C.

Double Diamond sends the qualified custodian written notice of the amount of its fee to be deducted from its clients' accounts. Double Diamond also sends its clients a written invoice itemizing the fee to be deducted which includes the formulae, the time period covered and the amount of assets under management on which the fee was based

Item 16: INVESTMENT DISCRETION

As such, prior to engaging Double Diamond to provide investment management services, the client will be required to enter into a formal Investment Advisory Agreement (including a limited power of attorney for discretionary accounts) with Double Diamond setting forth the terms and conditions which under which Double Diamond shall manage client's assets.

Item 17: VOTING CLIENT SECURITIES

A.

Double Diamond does not vote client proxies. Double Diamond and the client shall correspondingly instruct each custodian of the assets to forward to the client copies of all proxies and shareholder communications relating to the client's investment assets. With respect to shareholder class action litigation and similar matters, Registrant generally will not make any filings in connection with any shareholder class action lawsuits involving securities currently or previously held in clients' accounts. Registrant recommends that its clients promptly review these materials, as they identify important deadlines and may require action in the client's part. Registrant will not be required to notify third party custodians or clients who utilize third party
